SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University senior women's tennis standout Barbora Krtickova has been named to the Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America Spring At-Large second team, released today. She becomes the first two-time Academic All-American in women's tennis history and just the fourth multiple Academic All-American honoree for the Pirates.

Krtickova earns the second-team honor in 2014 after earning third-team honors as a junior. The native of Nove Mesto Nad Metuji, Czech Republic, carried a 3.66 GPA in health science while helping the Pirates advance to the NCAA DII National Championship match for an NCAA-record 14th time. She finished the 2014 season with an unbeaten 21-0 record in singles play and a 26-2 mark in doubles, concluding her Armstrong career with a No. 7 national ranking in singles and a No. 2 national rank in doubles.

In her four seasons with the Pirates, she became the first Armstrong tennis player - men or women - to win 300 combined singles and doubles matches, and she is one of only three Armstrong women's tennis players to earn ITA All-America honors in singles and doubles all four years with the program.
